This happened on May 29, 2025

My friend Lynn (we met in 2nd grade and she was going by Lynn then, so I've always called her Lynn) who now goes by Jennylynn (Her name is Jennifer Lynn Henderson) texted me to check if it was actually me and let me know that this happened. We talk over text a lot - almost every day with at least one small message, and she's fine with me writing out stuff to her because writing helps me process things and cope with things)

I got a message from a Facebook with your name
L
is that you
Lynn Henderson • Thu 4:42 PM
Nope
I'm not back in Facebook at all.
Might want to save that. Might be more evidence.
Thu 4:42 PM
L
they know you call me Lynn
Lynn Henderson • Thu 4:43 PM
Screenshot it, too . . . probably a good idea. I send things over to Ducote Firm - get them over early even though I've not signed an engagement letter yet
That sounds like it would be Charlotte. Obviously, early on, when I thought things were fine with her, I had told her Lynn at some point when just talking.
I doubt anybody else that knows that would be pretending to be me.

I doubt anybody else that knows that would be pretending to be me.

I told them I was in the room with you and blocked them

L I ain't dealing with her again, it's just bs

Lynn Henderson • Thu 5:11 PM

Close enough . . . .I mean, sure, you aren't really in the room, but you know that I'm here

Thu 5:12 PM

L yep and they don't know that

Lynn Henderson • Thu 5:13 PM

Yep. . . thank goodness

Thu 5:13 PM

And, yeah, it's probably Charlotte or somebody on her behalf . . . pretty sure she's trying hard to try to avoid getting in trouble.

But, I've told her that all of her breach of contract and horrible behavior is going to be public. It's not like people haven't already seen it

Lynn Henderson • Thu 5:19 PM

Um, really, middle name is Henderson? I'd tell you that your middle name is Lynn . . . . and I call you Lynn.

I can tell you that our 2nd grade teacher's name was Mrs. DiBartolo

I don't think I've told anybody that.

Thu 5:21 PM

what even is her idea there like... that Facebook has three friends

Lynn Henderson • Thu 5:23 PM

Who knows? I hope they aren't people that were actually my Facebook friends

Thu 5:23 PM

I reported it and of course Facebook can't find anything wrong with it

Lynn Henderson • Thu 5:38 PM

Of course not . . .

Thu 5:38 PM

Whenever I was on and would report stuff, nothing wrong. but, I had stuff taken down from years earlier. They said it was nudity . . . I had posted a link to a news article and I couldn't change the picture. It was a picture of a kid with the measles. Oh, heavens, a kid's bare chest! I know that the picture went to an article about the importance of vaccines.
